

MANAGER - RESEARCH ADMINISTRATION & FISCAL ANALYSIS

The Manager, Research Administration and Fiscal Analysis leads sponsored projects staff in financially managing a robust portfolio of extramurally-funded research, public service, and training grants. The position exists to ensure compliance – and minimize compliance risks – with both internal and external rules, policies, procedures, and guidelines associated with sponsored projects, and to assist faculty and staff with related ongoing budget and operational issues.

Required Education: Bachelor's

Discipline(s): Accounting, Finance, Business, or Related Field

Indicate the minimum number of years required to do the job: Five

Indicate the type of experience required to do the job: Accounting, Business Administration

Preferred Education: Master's

Discipline(s): Accounting, Finance, Business, or Related Field

Certifications/Licenses Preferred: Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and/or Certified Research Administrator (CRA)

Indicate the preferred experience to perform the job: Specific experience in sponsored projects accounting

LSU Health Sciences Center is an Equal Opportunity Employer for females, minorities, individuals with disabilities and protected veterans.

About the School/Department: LSU Health Sciences Center New Orleans is among the nation's most comprehensive academic health centers and Louisiana's flagship health university. Through its Schools of Medicine, Nursing, Dentistry, Allied Health Professions, Graduate Studies and Public Health, LSU Health Sciences Center New Orleans educates the majority of Louisiana's health professionals, as well as research scientists, faculty, and health policy leaders. A powerful economic engine, LSU Health Sciences Center New Orleans generates thousands of jobs and has enormous economic impact.

Comprehensive benefits are available to eligible employees and their dependents including health, life, dental, and vision insurance; flexible spending accounts; retirement plans; annual and sick leave; 14 paid holidays per year; wellness benefits including a complimentary fitness center and an employee health primary care clinic; tuition exemption; and employee discounts.