

PRODUCT COORDINATOR

In this newly created role with GateHouse Auto the individual will work with the Auto Product Manager and the ThriveHive Fulfillment Team to support internal clients while assisting to build relationships with auto dealers. It is a combination of technical, digital, customer service and administrative work that is web-based. Experience with Salesforce will be key. This is a role that individual must have ability to multitask and should be well organized. Opportunity to gain experience and knowledge about digital marketing. The position is located in an easy to reach (red line) office in Quincy with cafeteria on site and many employee perks.

GateHouse is a national company with properties/publications and audience in 38 states with more than 10,000 employees and many opportunities.

Interested and qualified for this role and want to apply?

Send resume to Ichase@gatehouseauto.com for consideration.

An EEO Employer.