

Greenleaf Corporation, headquartered in Saegertown, PA, is a world leader in manufacturing advanced carbide and ceramic cutting tools for the metal working industry is looking for:

TOOLING ENGINEER

Will create assembly and detailed drawings for quotation, manufacture and/or reference of cutting tools, fixtures, special equipment, and R&D. Knowledge of machining, tolerances, engineering practices, mathematics, and materials.

Computer literacy and proficiency of 2D and 3D CAD design packages. Bachelor's degree and 5 years or more of related work experience. Experience in the metal cutting industry is a plus through hands-on work experience and/or a college degree in the field.

AUTOMATION ENGINEER

Will design and build motion control systems and automated systems to support manufacturing. Part of a multi-disciplinary team to support the development of systems to modernize the manufacturing facilities. Will design, test and document PLC ladder logic and HMI systems. Must understand safety circuits as well as learn and understand robotics and machine vision and PID loops to control temperature. Bachelor's degree and 5 years or more of related work experience required and GPA of 3.3 or higher is a plus.

Salary commensurate with experience and we offer an excellent benefits package!

We also have openings for Manufacturing Engineers, Industrial Engineer and Technical Sales and Service Engineers. We have a great culture and are looking for great talent!

Greenleaf is a privately held business with excellent career opportunities throughout the United States and around the world. We operate in 60+ countries, and are a fast paced, technology driven company who cares about our people and are willing to invest in their future. We know our most valuable asset is the global team of Greenleaf employees. Join us to become part of a winning team and a great culture that has roots going back over 73 years.

Application is available at www.greenleafcorporation.com.

Send completed application and resume to Rhonda Boulton, PO Box 1040, Saegertown, PA 16433 or email it to rboulton@greenleafcorporation.com.