

We're Growing!

Isometric provides ultra-precision manufacturing and automated assembly services. Our unique abilities have enabled significant growth in the medical and drug delivery device markets. We are located in New Richmond, WI and are inviting qualified applicants to apply to the following new positions:

SHIPPING & RECEIVING CLERK

Responsible for the accurate and timely preparation and delivery of incoming and outgoing shipments and for safety and precision in material handling.

Qualifications:

Intermediate level computer skills with utmost attention to detail. Minimum 1 year shipping/receiving experience, material handling, inventory, working knowledge of freight carrier labeling (FedExp and UPS), ability to lift up to 55 lbs frequently, customer service friendly and helpful attitude, ability to make independent decisions.

Full Time - 1st Shift M-F

MANUFACTURING ENGINEER

The Manufacturing Engineer is responsible for developing and implementing manufacturing processes including those requiring automation.

- Bachelor's degree in Engineering
- Self-starter with attention to detail
- Validation experience (IQ, OQ, PQ)
- Understanding of Design of Experiment (DOE)
- Experience working in an ISO13485 environment

Full time First Shift M-F

MACHINE OPERATOR

Responsible for the independent operation of plastic injection molding machines, inspecting parts under microscope, and performing secondary operations.

Full or Part-Time Opportunities include:

- 1st shift Mon-Fri; OR
- 2nd shift Mon-Thurs (four 10's)

To Apply: send resume to cjohnson@isotool.com

Isometric is an Equal Opportunity Employer